Welcome!

Welcome! I've had such fun reconnecting with many of you.

This year "the month of love" – Valentine's Day – intertwines with Mardi Gras.

You may have thought Mardi Gras was only widely celebrated in New Orleans, but celebrations stretch across the entire Gulf Coast! The truth is, Mardi Gras was launched in heavily Catholic Mobile, Ala., in 1703 by a Frenchman when the city was the capital of Louisiana! Let the Good Times Roll!

Speaking of "love," have you heard about the annual "Tropical Reunion" vow renewal ceremony staged at Lulu's – the restaurant owned by Jimmy Buffet's sister? The group ceremony is staged in two of her Gulf Coast restaurants (Destin and Gulf Shores) and one in Myrtle Beach, S.C.

In this edition, our cover couple is tireless "fire starters" – who serve on the Walton County Snowbird Club board. Their challenge is one most Snowbirds clubs face post-pandemic – rebuilding and recreating new members. They have reached out directly and through Facebook inviting folks in – and it's working!

The novel Covid-19 pandemic put a pause on many club activities, but most folks are now back meeting, gathering, and enjoying winter here.

We are keeping our fingers crossed that February lands gently. Now, go out, have fun, meet people where they are, and draw in those who may need an extra hug!

Be well, stay safe. Please thank and recognize the businesses that support this publication. In doing so, they support YOU.

Ohio natives, part-time Miramar Beach Residents Enjoy Snowbird Club

What are your names, ages and where are you from?

Bob (65—Youngstown, Ohio) and Peg Breetz (59, 60 on Jan 28—Cleveland, Ohio).

Where do you currently reside?

When up north, we live in Twinsburg, Ohio, outside of Cleveland. When in Florida, we own a home in Miramar Beach in Bayside development.

How did you find Walton County, Florida?

My sister had been coming to South Walton for a few years, and we came to check it out.

Are you both retired?

Yes

What kind of work did you do?

We both worked for the Electric Utility FirstEnergy in OH. Bob was in the operations side of the business, and I was in Human Resources.

Do you have any children and grandchildren?

Bob has two daughters, both married. We have two sons together, one married and one engaged. We have four grandchildren.

Where do they live?

All the kids and grandkids live in Ohio.

Do they get to visit?

Yes, they either come see us in the winter or use our house in the summer.

You both have become active volunteers helping to resuscitate the Walton club. Why did you step forward? What was the need you saw?

We started as activity leaders: Bob manages the Tuesday golf league, and Peg leads the aerobics classes and coordinates a blood drive sponsored by the Snowbirds through OneBlood. This year is Feb 15 and call Peg if you want to sign up! We were then asked to fill the 2nd vice-presidents for the club. We want to help bring new members and activities to the club during our time on the Board.

Are there benefits to joining the volunteer board?

We really enjoy volunteering to provide a fun and worthwhile club for the members. We have met such great friends through the Snowbirds. Being involved keeps us very busy while in Walton County. We love to spread the word about the club and all the great activities we provide.

Besides devoting so much time to the board/club, what other activities do you enjoy?

We both golf and play pickleball. We ride our bikes. Peg runs and works out daily. Bob likes to fish. We enjoy spending time with our kids and grandkids.

Do you enjoy day trips or short regional trips? If so, any favorites?

While on the Emerald Coast the past five years, we have visited many of the state parks. We have made trips to New Orleans, Mobile and Dothan. We visited the Eglin Armament museum and the National Naval Aviation Museum. We really enjoyed both of those museums. Although we love the beaches and emerald green water in South Walton (that's why we ended up here), Florida has much more to offer than beaches!

What do you say if someone asks about the benefits of Snowbirding along the northern Gulf Coast?

Best beaches and water in Florida. The snowbirds are great; we have met many friends from all over the country and Canada that we see every year. The Walton County Snowbird group provides so many fun and worthwhile activities such as sports, cards, discussion groups, and social events.

Check out our website www.waltoncountysnowbirds.com or our Facebook page, Walton County Snowbirds.

Activities Energize Walton Snowbird Club Membership

Walton club Board members such as Peg and Bob Breetz took on the challenge of rebuilding the club's membership roster by finding help, adding activities - and building a social media presence. The results are in the stats: The Walton County Snowbirds currently have 627 members, with 131 new members this year. As a retiree and snowbird, you may get tired of being asked, "what do you do all day?" The Walton County Snowbirds have so many activities that our calendars are pretty busy! Some of our more physical activities include aerobics, line dancing, water aerobics, and Zumba.

Snowbird aerobics is every Monday and Wednesday at 10 a.m. at Legion Park in good weather or Faith Fellowship Hall in bad weather. Both locations are in Miramar Beach. Peg Breetz, the instructor, says they get an average of 40-50 members per class, but there is plenty of room to spread out. The members enjoy doing the class at Legion Park, right on Choctawhatchee Bay. The class combines low-impact cardio-intensive moves and all body strength and conditioning using light weights and body weight.

Line dancing is from 11:15 a.m. to 12:15 p.m. every Monday and Wednesday at Faith Fellowship Hall, Miramar Beach. Several of the aerobics members head to line dancing right after aerobics for a fun, music-based workout. Instructor Sarah Vaillancourt breaks the dances into basic steps. Members learn a new dance each week to music styles, including country, pop, rock and hip-hop.

Sarah also holds water aerobics sessions on Tuesdays and Thursdays at Hidden Dunes at 11 a.m. The pool is heated! The group does a variety of water aerobic exercises with a noodle and also strengthening and toning. Contact Sarah through the waltoncountysnowbirds.com website if you are interested in the class.

Senior Zumba is held on Wednesdays at 3 p.m. at Faith Fellowship Hall. Zumba is led by local instructor Jane McGee. A variety of music gets the group dancing! Each class is $4.

There are over 30 more activities, including basketball, bowling, golf, discussion groups, singles group, excursions and more. The club has very active card groups, including bridge, hand and foot, poker and euchre.

For more information, visit www.waltoncountysnowbirds.com or join the group's Facebook page, "Walton County Snowbirds."

Monte Kramer, from Plymouth Massachusetts, got a hole-in-one on January 17 during the Walton County Snowbirds Tuesday golf league at Seascape. Monte used his wedge on the 90-yard #7 hole. He believes this is his second hole-in-one, the first being way back in the 1980s.

Rekindle the romance and recommitment at Lulu's for Valentine's - plus a cruise and dances

By Louis Cooper

If you are looking for romance and fun for Valentine's Day, the Gulf Coast has you covered. From romantic cruises to vow renewals to classic romance, there are plenty of ways to say, "I love you."

LuLu's Tropical Reunion Wedding Vow Renewal Ceremonies

If you happened to have packed your wedding dress when you headed south this year, you may want to fluff up the chiffon.

After a two-year Covid hiatus, the LuLu's Tropical Reunion Wedding Vow Renewal Ceremonies return to the eatery's locations in Gulf Shores, Ala., and Destin, Fla., on Saturday, February 11. Festivities run from 1 to 3 p.m. at each location that day, with the ceremonies set for 2 p.m.

Couples may participate for free, with complimentary champagne toasts, wedding cakes, flowers and photos. Prizes will be awarded to the couples who have been married the longest and shortest, and who are dressed the most festively.

"We have had a couple get married at LuLu's before the event, so they could win one of the prizes for the couple who has been married the least amount of time," said Gabrielle

Barnett, Lulu's marketing director. "And we love the costumes. Some have even worn their original wedding dresses! The creativity is really fun."

The renewal ceremonies started 15 years ago at Lulu's in Gulf Shores to give the community something fun to do for Valentine's Day. In 2020, the last renewal ceremonies before Covid, 307 couples renewed their vows in Gulf Shores while 172 couples participated in Destin.

"It is so sweet to see couples who have been married for decades look into each other's eyes and fall in love again," Barnett said. "I walk around and take photos during the event and get very teary-eyed. The energy on the beach is full of love."

While locals are welcome and do participate, she said most in attendance are typically snowbirds.

"The snowbird temporary population is incredibly important to our coastal communities in the January-to-spring break months," Barnett added. "They bring a much-needed influx of business to the rental companies, local stores and restaurants. They keep us going before the spring break, and summer tourists arrive."

Couples are asked to pre-register at the restaurant or online at www.LuLusFunFoodMusic.com so that certificates can be prepared before the ceremony. Lulu's restaurant in North Myrtle Beach, S.C., is hosting a renewal ceremony on Valentine's Day afternoon.

Surprise your honey with a Valentine's Day cruise!

Tammy's Journeys has space available for several cruises during the 2024 Snowbird season, including a Valentine's cruise (Feb. 11-17) aboard the Carnival Spirit from the newly reopened Port of Mobile. Port stops include Cozumel and Belize.

The first sailing is Jan. 13-18 from Jacksonville, Fla., to the Bahamas on the Carnival Elation. Nearby you also can visit historic St. Augustine. Two others are from the Port of Mobile Jan. 14-20 to the Bahamas and from Feb. 25 through March 2 to Cozumel and Belize.

The Golden Age of Romance

This is one night of classics you don't want to miss! Purchasing one ticket provides you with two tickets to the show, a bottle of wine, and a charcuterie board to share - a perfect date night idea for Valentine's Day.

Performances are staged at 6 p.m. and 8 p.m. in ECTC's cabaret stage located on the second floor of 560 Grand Boulevard in Grand Boulevard Town Center in Miramar Beach. Tickets are $95 a couple, plus processing, and are available at www.emeraldcoasttheatre.org.

Enjoy the original Mardi Gras and new traditions in Mobile, Ala.

Most people outside the region think New Orleans is the home of the original Mardi Gras. Actually, that claim to fame belongs to Mobile, Ala.

Both cities were once the capital of French (Catholic) Louisiana – and each at one time was under Spain's rule. But Mobile has the distinction of having staged the first celebration in 1711. The first mystic societies developed some 120 years later.

Over the years, regional Mardi Gras celebrations have been challenged by many events (including the aftermath of numerous hurricanes), but celebrants have found a way. The Covid-19 pandemic and resulting restrictions and lockdowns presented a unique challenge. Still, Mobile residents were not to be deterred and began creating float replicas in 2021 on their expansive front porches – and lawns (hence the term Yardi Gras.) That way, celebrants could drive by and participate safely from a distance. And local businesses heavily invested in Mardi Gras still had an income stream. Local charities also benefit.

The Porch Parades continue today and may become a new tradition!

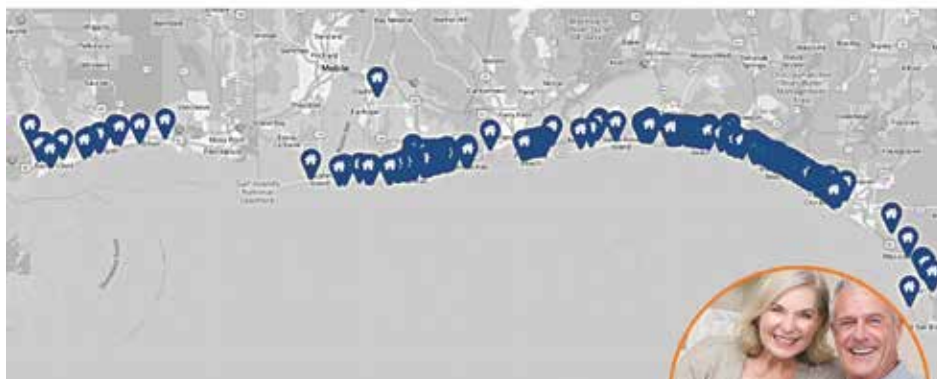

A frequently updated location map of homes – and an expansive playlist of songs is posted at www.mobilefrontporch.com. Visitors can find a complete list of Mobile-area Mardi Gras events at www.mobilemask.com.

Women's monument joins myriad vet memorials along coast

By Louis Cooper

For the last 12 years, a dedicated group of volunteers in Pensacola has worked to establish a permanent monument to an arguably overlooked group of selfless servants – women who have served their country in uniform.

"The Monument to Women Veterans will recognize, empower and honor the military women who have served their country and often provide unmet critical resources for female veteran care," said Jennifer Harrison, a volunteer with the monument. An estimated 2.8 million women veterans have honorably served in combat since 1948.

The monument will reach more than 35 feet in the air with flames, with a laser beam over a stainless-steel elliptical band of water. The monument will be surrounded by women figures from each branch of the military in their service uniforms.

World-renowned sculptor Elizabeth MacQueen has been selected to create the piece of art.

The project took a major leap forward when organizers signed a 100-year lease for the old Amtrak station at 980 E. Heinberg Street in Downtown Pensacola. The sculpture will be installed outside of the station and the building will become a museum, visitor center and veterans resource facility. Fundraising for the $2.5 million renovation project is ongoing.

The museum opened in November 2021.

"We currently host the Wounded Eagle UAS Drone Training Program, Defenders of Freedom Florida, NetSimple, and FAVOB," Harrison said. "There are UWF Historical Women Veteran Images there now, as well."

Ultimately, the facility will offer women veterans help in areas like post-traumatic stress, military sexual trauma, traumatic brain issues, domestic violence, unemployment and homelessness.

For more information about the Monument to Women Veterans, visit <https://mwveterans.org>.

With the many military bases along the northern Gulf Coast, there are numerous monuments and memorials peppered across our communities marking the accomplishments and sacrifice of the nation's warriors, including these:

Veterans Tribute Tower, 316 Beal Pkwy NW, Fort Walton Beach, Fla. (Beal Memorial Cemetery)

For more than 30 years, the Fort Walton Beach community had gathered on the entrance green to Beal Memorial Cemetery on solemn occasions to honor the veterans interred there.

Then, about a decade ago, a group of local citizens came together to design, fund and construct a new focal point on the site, the Veterans Tribute Tower. The 30-foot tall, four-faced clock tower with the Freedom Bell and Carillon was inaugurated with a Veterans Day ceremony in 2015. Now, the memorial is home to annual Veterans Day and Memorial Day commemorations, as well as other remembrances, said Tom Rice, chairman of the Veterans Tribute Tower Committee.

"November brings the ringing of the Freedom Bell as names are read for the Lazarus Field internments, and December features the Wreaths Across America Placement Ceremony," said Rice, who owns Magnolia Grill in Fort Walton Beach.

"In addition to the planned ceremonies, the Freedom Bell and Carillon 'Taps' are utilized upon request by numerous families as services are held for loved ones."

Rice, a retired first sergeant and member of the Florida Veterans Hall of Fame, believes the tower has already become a place of genuine reflection.

"Shortly after the Veterans Tribute Tower was dedicated, a young military spouse had lost her husband after his very difficult struggle with brain cancer," he said. "She told me that she found great comfort visiting the Tower green and reading the message on the four clockfaces, 'Take Time To Remember,' and remembering the good times before her spouse's tragic passing."

Beal Memorial Cemetery is the final resting place for more than 1,800 veterans.

USS Alabama Battleship Memorial Park, 2703 Battleship Parkway, Mobile, Ala.

Although anchored by the battleship and other armaments, the USS Alabama Battleship Memorial Park is also home to several memorials, including specific monuments for veterans of Korea and Vietnam – including a standing POW bracelet – and a memorial to service members who died in the line of duty since 9/11, among others.

Mississippi Vietnam Veterans Memorial, 3704 Bienville Blvd, Ocean Springs, Miss. (on the grounds of the Ocean Springs Civic Center)
This memorial consists of two black granite walls facing each other, bearing the names and faces of the 668 Mississippians who died in Vietnam. The site also includes the main mast from the USS Mississippi and the USS Tullibee Memorial - The Submarine Veterans of WWII display.

USS Biloxi Memorial, 693 Beach Boulevard, Biloxi, Miss. (Biloxi Small Craft Harbor, next to Hard Rock Casino)

This monument includes the World War II-era light cruiser's superstructure, a Purple Heart display and other war-related markers.

Navarre Black Hawk Memorial, 8593 Navarre Pkwy Navarre, Fla. (Navarre Park)

On March 10, 2015, four Louisiana National Guardsmen and seven Marines died on a training exercise when their Black Hawk helicopter crashed into Santa Rosa Sound near Navarre. With many military families living in Navarre, the community was especially touched by the tragedy. They worked together to establish this memorial, which features a sculpture of a large eagle in flight as well as a sign that lists the service members' names and a plaque explaining the crash.

The Wall South, 200 S. 10th Ave. Pensacola, Fla. (Admiral Mason Park)
This monument is a half-scale replica of the Vietnam Memorial in Washington, D.C., complete with engraved names on a black marble wall. It is part of a complex of military shrines, including memorials for both World Wars and Korea.

Santa Rosa Veteran's Memorial Plaza
Set in downtown Milton along a riverfront boardwalk, there is a virtual preview includes stars to click (<http://public.santarosa.fl.gov/applications/vetbricks/vtour.cfm>) and learn about each, including dogs. Details: 850-860-or vetmemorial@santarosa.fl.gov

Panama City Beach Veterans Memorial, 500 West Park Drive, Panama City Beach, Fla. (Aaron Bessant Park)

This memorial is a circle of stone pillars representing each branch of service around a display of the American, Florida and POW/MIA flags.

Dining, shows and celebrations at OWA

Regular winter visitors have witnessed the growth of OWA, a sprawling project developed by the Poarch Creek Indians in collaboration with the City of Foley in Baldwin County, Ala. The name OWA was inspired by the Muscogee Creek word meaning "big water."

The complex includes numerous restaurants; family entertainment with an arcade, water park; a theatre with changing acts, comedian and variety show entertainer Brandon Style; arts and seasonal celebrations. A hotel is adjacent to the park and vibrant downtown Foley is nearby with outlet stores and more.

Seasonal visitors, including summer and spring beach vacationers, winter "Snowbirds," and a growing sports tourism sector are the main drivers. The park is a regional attraction drawing day visitors from the Florida panhandle, Mobile, Ala., and the Mississippi Gulf Coast.

Some of the latest news:

Mardi Gras celebrations run the gamut beginning Feb. 11. Krewe du Kidz Walking Parade, 1 p.m.; Feb. 18 Puppy Gras Parade, 1 p.m. and Feb. 19, Totally 80s After (parade) Party, 8 p.m. Details: visitowa.com.

Plus, there are a number of southern-style sides from collard greens, creamed potatoes, butter rice, creamed corn, baked mac and cheese and more. The meal wouldn't be complete without dessert: cobbler, banana pudding, or "Ooey Goey Butter Cake."

There also is a sizable gift shop on-site.

"Grab and go" dining is available at El Diablo Taqueria and Cantina will soon offer affordable options in that tradition. A reopening date will be shared on the OWA El Diablo Facebook page.

The centerpiece of OWA Parks & Resort is Tropic Falls, which includes both a theme park and an all-new indoor water park. Tropic Falls theme park's rides range from kid-friendly to hair-raising. The indoor water park offers an island vibe beneath a soaring, convertible roof. Now under construction in Tropic Falls is an outdoor water park with a wave pool and surf simulator. What is AFib, and How Can it Affect Your Health

From Baptist Health Care

Atrial fibrillation, or AFib, is when the upper chambers of the heart (atria) quiver or flutter. This irregular beating causes the blood to move inefficiently through your heart. If you feel a fluttering sensation in your throat, neck or chest while performing your daily activities, it could indicate that a visit with your physician is needed. Men and women should not ignore these heart flutters.

While AFib is not usually life-threatening, it can increase your risk of stroke and heart disease. Some of the following AFib symptoms can significantly impact your quality of life:

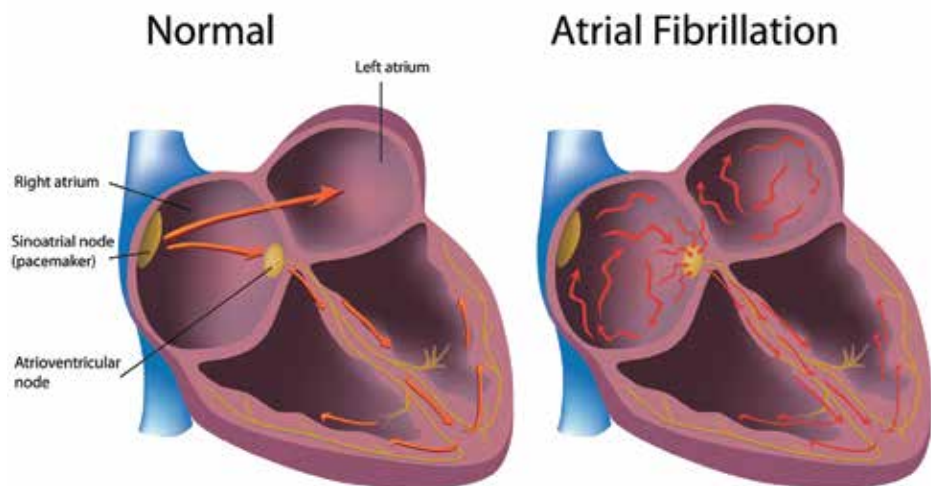

- Anxiety
- Shortness of breath
- Weakness
- Chronic fatigue
- Lightheadedness/dizziness
- Rapid or irregular heartbeats
- Swelling of the lower extremities

- Decreased stamina

"AFib is a common heart rhythm disturbance," said Thabet Alsheikh, M.D., FACC, FHRS, electrophysiologist at Baptist Heart & Vascular Institute. "It has a variety of symptoms. Many patients never know they have it. The most concerning thing is the risk of having a stroke. That's why talking to a doctor and seeking treatment for AFib is essential."

According to American College of Cardiology Foundation researchers, the likelihood of developing AFib increases with age. Other factors can also increase a person's risk of developing AFib, such as family history, heart disease, high blood pressure, obesity, alcohol consumption and other chronic conditions.

The Baptist Heart & Vascular Institute's multidisciplinary team can help identify the best treatment option for you or your loved one. A personalized care plan will put you in control of your health.

BHVI treatment options include:

- EKG, echocardiogram, external or implantable monitoring
- Medication therapies
- Surgical procedures:

- Catheter ablation
- Left atrial appendage closure (Watchman)

Your heart is your lifeline. Let the AFib Center at BHVI get you back to doing what you love. For more information, visit ebaptisthealthcare.org/Heart/afib.

New State-of-the-Art MRI Unit at Andrews Institute for Orthopaedics & Sports Medicine

From Baptist Health Care

A new, state-of-the-art magnetic resonance imaging (MRI) at Andrews Institute for Orthopaedics & Sports Medicine is designed to enhance the patient experience and provide physicians with the best images available.

The leading-edge technology in the Siemens 3T Lumina wide bore (70 cm) MRI is essential to providing precise images for effective diagnosis so that timely treatment can begin. The 3T at Andrews is the only MRI in the region with the new FDA-approved Boost Technology that reduces scan time by up to 50% with no compromise to image quality.

Additional advances include a 70-centimeter bore (the area of the machine where a patient lies down) with a table that undocks and can be removed for easier and safer patient transfer. This wide bore design allows more room for the patient during a scan. This may reduce the feeling of claustrophobia some patients experience during an MRI exam. Other features include faster scan times for more immediate and same-day access and a Bose state-of-the-art stereo system that offers quality sound and a wide range of audio entertainment that patients can select from for a more enjoyable scanning experience

"We're seeing tremendous results," said David Koppy, B.S., R.T., senior MRI technologist. "Many of our patients have noticed the considerably faster scan time, and our physicians are very impressed with the high-resolution images being produced."

"This new machine significantly improves the MRI experience for our patients," said Chad McCammon, vice president of orthopaedics for Baptist Health Care.

"That enhanced patient experience is always top-of-mind for us, and this is another great example of that commitment."

Andrews Institute for Orthopaedics & Sports Medicine is located at 1040 Gulf Breeze Parkway, Gulf Breeze, Florida 32561. To make an appointment, call 850.916.8700 or visit andrewsinstitute.com
